WOULD A FENCE HELP?

If we could build a fence around the world, what would it mean?

Would we live happily with one another? Would we respect our limitations and still feel free within our confines? Would we stop wars, and know eternal peace?

Probably not. Because, while you can fence in physical objects, the minds, the hearts, and the souls of man cannot be harnessed. Nor could we be forced to live in peace. Blessed peace can come only to us through practicing the love, the faith, the tolerance and the understanding that God, through His Church on earth, tries again and again to teach us.

With that in mind, remember World Day of Prayer this year. Determine not to build a fence around yourself, or around anyone else—but to pledge, instead, to enlarge your horizons and the horizons of the entire world through the common voice of prayer.

And what better place in which to make such a pledge than the Church itself?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Mineral Man Turns Self In For Larceny

M. R. Hixenbaugh Signs Statement On Post Robbery

The recent breaking and entering into the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post home at McCoole, in which $835 was stolen, was solved last night when the intruder turned himself in at the State Police barracks in LaVale.

Being held in the County Jail for action of the March grand jury of Allegany County Court on a larceny charge is Marshall Ross Hixenbaugh, 31, who resides on the Fort Ashby-Keyser Road in Mineral County.

Sgt. William F. Baker, criminal investigator for the LaVale barracks, said Hixenbaugh decided to turn himself in after being informed he and five other members Queen Point Memorial Post 6775 were to undergo lie detector tests today.

Part Of Loot Recovered

Sgt. Baker said $592.39 of the stolen amount was recovered today by Cpl. Evan Moody of the West Virginia State Police detachment at Keyser and Chief of Police Guy Clem of Keyser. The money had been hidden in the garage at Hixenbaugh's home, Sgt. Baker said.

Preliminary investigation disclosed that entry into the post home was made by a person who had a key to the building. The intruder then cut out a portion of the wall leading into the office where the money was kept. Sgt. Baker said it was determined that only six members of the post were in possession of such keys or knew where the money was kept.

Father Of Three Children

Arrangements were made for a lie detector specialist to come here this morning and conduct tests on the six persons. Officials notified the six men yesterday, and Hixenbaugh turned himself in at about 11:30 p. m. yesterday.

He was lodged at the State Police barracks overnight, and taken to the State's Attorney's office this morning where a statement was taken.

Hixenbaugh is expected to be given a preliminary hearing early next week for the purpose of setting bond. The father of three children, he has been employed in the engineering department of the Potomac Edison Company.

Showalter Is Found Guilty

William Showalter, 40, of Clearville, Pa., who went on trial this week in Bedford County Circuit Court for the murder of his wife, Mrs. Hilda Showalter on November 14, yesterday afternoon was found guilty of voluntary manslaughter.

The petit jury, composed of seven men and five women, deliberated about three hours before bringing in its verdict.

In the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania such a verdict carries a prison term of from six to 12 years. Judge Richard C. Snyder, who was on the bench, deferred sentencing Showalter until Monday at 10 a. m. in Bedford County Circuit Court.

Mrs. Showalter died as a result of a stab wound inflicted by her husband, who later attempted to end his life and burned their home down, police said.

Two Charged In Slaying Of Midland Man

Former Amcelle Employe Was Guard At Reformatory

Two prisoners at the Lorton (Va.) Federal Reformatory were charged yesterday with slaying Michael J. Hughes Jr., 40, a guard who is a native of Allegany County.

The guard was found in the day room of Dormitory 13, following the Thursday evening meal. Death was attributed to a compound fracture of the skull and multiple stab wounds.

Arraigned on murder charges before United States Commissioner Stanley King, of Alexandria, were Gumersindo P. Gomez, 28, serving a term for robbery and assault with a dangerous weapon, and John Franklin Schoppel, 25, serving a term for auto theft.

70 Inmates Questioned

Seventy inmates of the dormitory were questioned in the attack and one of the dead man's fellow guards related seeing Gomez and Schoppel enter a washroom with their clothing disarranged and blood flecked.

A prison-made knife, nine inches in length, is believed to be the death weapon and it has been recovered.

Hughes was described by officials of the institution as being "well liked by everyone" and was known to be a quiet and persevering officer.

Leaves Five Children

Hughes, who was born at Ocean, is survived by his wife and five children. His father also survives.

Before going to the Lorton institution four years ago as a guard, he was employed at the Amcelle Plant of Celanese Corporation.

The case will be continued until Wednesday in order to permit the suspects to obtain counsel.

Eight FBI agents worked around the clock narrowing down the field of suspects but kept their findings secret fearing reprisals against witnesses involved.

Rabid Dog Bites Frostburg Boy

While shoveling snow in front of his home February 8, Gerald Snelson, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Snelson, 26 Braddock Street, Frostburg, was bitten when he attempted to pet a stray dog. The animal merely broke the skin on his right hand.

The same dog followed neighborhood children home from school Monday and Mrs. Snelson noticed the animal acting strangely and frothing at the mouth. She called local police but the dog disappeared.

Police were unable to find the dog until Wednesday, when it was killed.

A local physician was called when the 15-year-old youth told his parents he had been bitten by the dog and rabies treatments were advised.

The victim took the first of 14 rabies treatment Friday.

Phone Rates In Area Go Up Tomorrow

Revised Schedules Filed; Free Calling Areas Expanded

An increase in the base rates for customers of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company will go into effect tomorrow in Allegany and Garrett counties.

In connection with the rate increase, the C&P has expanded free-calling areas, filing the following revised schedules with the Public Service Commission:

From Cumberland — Lonaconing, McCoole and Westernport.

Lonaconing — Cumberland, Frostburg and Westernport.

Frostburg — Lonaconing.

Westernport — Cumberland and Lonaconing.

McCoole — Cumberland.

Accident, Bittinger, Friendsville and Kitzmiller — Oakland.

Oakland — Accident, Bittinger, Friendsville and Kitzmiller.

Procedure Change

The only change in calling procedure, at present, are that Cumberland subscribers will not have to dial 301 to reach Lonaconing. They should dial HO 3 and the number, while Westernport customers desiring to call Cumberland or Lonaconing should dial "7" and give the number to the Piedmont operator.

All other calls, in all other exchanges, should be placed or dialed in the present manner, according to Robert G. Garner, local manager.

In compliance with the PSC order limiting rate adjustments in the state to $6,048,900 in gross annual revenue, the company filed amended tariffs.

From this boost in gross income, the company expects to net $2,806,727 after taxes, enough to give the C & P a 5.25 per cent return on its investment in Maryland.

New Rates Noted

The new basic rates for Western Maryland telephone customers are as follows:

Cumberland and Westernport—Residence, one party, $6.35; two party, $5.45; four party, $4.80 and rural, $5.05. Business rates are $12.20 for one party, $10.45 for two party and $7.20 for rural.

Frostburg, Lonaconing, Mt. Savage, Flintstone and McCoole rates, beginning Sunday, go to $6.40 for one party residential; $5.20 for two party, $4.55 for four party and $4.80 for rural residences.

Business rates for the communities are $11.20 for one party, $9.45 for two party and $6.95 for rural business lines.

Accident, Bittinger, Friendsville, Kitzmiller and Oakland rates on Sunday go to:

Residence—$5.60 for one party, $4.70 two party, $4.05 for four party and $4.30 for rural. Business rates—$9.20 for one party, $7.70 for two party and $6.45 for rural business lines.

It was pointed out however, that some customers' bills will be less under the new wider range calling plan, due to the elimination of mileage and toll charges.

There will also be some slight adjustments, both upward and downward, the company said, in long distance rates between Maryland points.

The rate schedule approved by the PSC is about 30 per cent less than the company asked, citing its expansion program and inflated costs.

Its original application last August was for permission to raise rates enough to bring in $6,855,000 a year. $1,400,000 more was asked last December to meet wage increases.

Legislature Weighs Super Race Track

General Assembly Urged To Transfer Pimlico's 40 Days

By GEORGE BOWEN

ANNAPOLIS (AP) — Maryland legislators weighed anew today whether they should encourage construction of a super race track against a claim it might endanger the existence of Bowie.

They were urged again yesterday to approve transfer of Pimlico's 40 racing days to Laurel.

The resultant increase in available funds for improvements would enable Laurel to be built into a giant horse palace, said spokesmen for the track and Pimlico.

This would be followed by better racing, attendance, betting and taxes for the State, they told members of the Legislature's two finance committees.

On the other hand, Ralph Powers, a lawyer for Bowie, predicted that Bowie would have to close in four or five years if Laurel had 80 days of racing to its 40.

Walsh Cites Returns

William C. Walsh, another Bowie lawyer, explained it would receive only half as much as Laurel from the tax on betting for improvements.

The result would be that Bowie would be reduced to a second rate track by comparison, said Walsh.

Powers proposed instead of moving all of Pimlico's days to Laurel, they be divided with Bowie. In addition, the State would be paid two million dollars of improvement funds received by Pimlico, he said.

The present owners of Pimlico would continue to benefit from its days, the same set-up as proposed for the Pimlico-Laurel centralization.

This is the second straight year that it has been submitted to the Legislature for approval.

Protests Pressure

Sen. Malkus (D-Dorchester) who said he couldn't attend yesterday's hearing protested about what he called "high pressure lobbying" on the bill.

He asked that the bill be sent to his judiciary committee for one day next week so he can ask some questions of the lobbyists.

Paul Bailey, former State senator from St. Marys County, directed the presentation of arguments in behalf of the transfer before the finance committee. Walsh is a former attorney general.

Sen. Turnbull (D-Balto County), chairman of the finance committee which has the bill, said he planned to bring it up for a vote next Tuesday.

Other New Bills

Among other new legislation introduced before the Legislature adjourned for the weekend were proposals to:

Restrict legislation at 30-day sessions to budget and revenue bills.

Permit the Court of Appeals to decrease its work load somewhat by issuing mere decisions, instead of full opinions, in certain cases.

Prohibit the construction of service stations and restaurants along all controlled access highways except the proposed Northeastern Expressway.

Motorist Draws 65 Days In Jail

A 47-year-old motorist was sentenced to 65 days in the county jail in default of fines totaling $135 which were assessed by Trial Magistrate Donald W. Mason.

The man, a former resident of Cumberland, was arrested yesterday on Town Hill by Tfc. John F. Browning and Trooper Kenneth W. Messmer. The driver pleaded not guilty to one of the three charges preferred, but was convicted on all counts. Fines of $100, $25 and $10 were assessed by Magistrate Mason.

The magistrate had 14 motor vehicle cases scheduled this morning, and fines and forfeitures totaled $210. Court costs were also assessed for each case.

Area Man Sentenced As Parole Violator

A Frostburg area man was sentenced to a year in the House of Correction after a hearing yesterday before Juvenile Magistrate Fred H. Anderson.

The man, Howard A. Bittner, was charged with violating a parole and non-support of his wife and seven children.

Water Main Break Adds To Problems

The Town of Westernport, which has been beset by water problems for the past week or so, was faced with another last night when a break was discovered in the main from the Savage River dam to the town reservoir.

The break in the main was located on Luke Hill, town officials said, and crews worked all night in an attempt to repair the line. The work is not expected to be completed until late today.

In the meantime, the neighboring town of Piedmont in West Virginia is supplying the water needs of Westernport residents. The reservoir and auxiliary tank are "dry as a bone," Westernport officials stated.

Spokesmen said the water situation began edging towards the critical stage within the past week, mainly because of the cold weather. Residents were leaving their water taps open to prevent pipes from freezing, it was explained.

State Police Solve Four Area Cases

Three breaking and enterings and one burglary, dating from September 27, 1957 through last Saturday, all in the Green Spring area, have been cleared up by West Virginia State Police at Romney.

Freeman (Buck) Riggleman, 33, of Green Spring, was arraigned late today before Justice of the Peace O. W. Snarr and was charged with breaking and entering the store owned by Virginia Smith at Green Spring on September 27, 1957.

He is also charged with a burglary of the Marvin Capnon residence on the Green Spring Road, near Springfield on January 6, and a second breaking and entering of the Smith Store on February 9.

John Mark Riggleman, 18, brother of Freeman Riggleman, and William Frank Emswiler, 19, also of Green Spring, were arraigned before Justice of the Peace Snarr yesterday in connection with breaking and entering the store operated by Mrs. Lillian Allen, Green Spring.

They are being held under $500 bond for the action of the Hampshire County Grand Jury.

The first breaking and entering of the Smith establishment was investigated by Trooper C. E. Dorsey of Romney and the other incidents were investigated by Trooper John Ramsburg of Romney.

Police state that groceries, cigarettes, razor blades and a small amount of silver were taken in the breaking and enterings.

Landis To Be Brought Here

Edwin M. Lilya, county investigator, and Deputy Sheriff Edgar M. Lewis, will go to Jacksonville, Florida over the weekend to bring back George W. Landis, a local man wanted here for embezzlement.

Landis was indicted by the October 1957 grand jury, but the charge was not docketed due to the fact that he was not in custody when the jury returned the indictment, according to James S. Getty, assistant state's attorney.

Landis is being detained at Jacksonville and has waived extradition.

Landis, former manager of Rose Hill Cemetery, has been charged with embezzlement of funds from the vestry of Emmanuel Episcopal Church, which operates the cemetery. The embezzlement is said to have occurred between 1950 and 1956.

Heavy Snow Forecast For W. Maryland

Depths Up To Eight Inches In Garrett Seen By Tomorrow

A heavy snow warning was issued this morning by the Weather Bureau for Maryland, and by this afternoon it looked as though the prediction was right on the nose.

A light snow began in Garrett County about 8:30 a. m. and in the Cumberland area about 9:30 a. m.

The forecast for Allegany and Washington counties is an accumulation of three to six inches of snow tonight and tomorrow morning.

To Be Windy And Cold

It is to be windy and cold tonight and tomorrow with a low in the 20s. Sunday is to be windy and cold with some flurries in the afternoon.

In Garrett County an accumulation of six to eight inches is expected and it is to become windy and continued cold. The low tonight is to be between 15 and 20 degrees.

Even the Eastern Shore is not to be overlooked, the Weather Bureau said. There is to be a blanket of snow from Washington County eastward generally three to five inches in depth by tomorrow.

A light snow began falling in Baltimore about the same time it did in Cumberland.

Crews Out In Garrett

The State Roads Commission reported today's snow was laying and early this afternoon roads in Garrett and Allegany counties were covered with a thin coat.

There were 13 trucks working on the roads in Garrett County by noon. Weary crews have not had the weekend off for the past three weeks, and it appears another working one is in store for them.

The temperature was just right for snowing, with all points reporting in the low to middle 20s.

The West Virginia State Police said roads in the Eastern Panhandle were getting a light snow.

Ruling Ends Death Probe

County authorities yesterday ruled the death of a six-year-old Water Street girl who was burned in a fire at her home was accidental.

Francena L. Smith, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Smith, 29 Water Street, died at 8:45 a. m. January 25 in Memorial Hospital about four hours after she was admitted with severe burns about her face and most of her body.

The victim apparently had gotten out of bed early in the morning and put on a slip which caught fire from a gas stove in the room.

When the girl ran screaming to the bedroom of her brother and sisters, the nine-year-old brother smothered the fire with a blanket. The parents, awakened by the children, then rushed the little girl to the hospital, authorities were told.

However, the flames from the girl's clothing set fire to a mattress. The father attempted to put out the fire with water and presumed it was extinguished, police said he told them.

After the parents returned home from the hospital the family again went to bed. But, the mattress continued to smoulder, Smith said.

A passing motorist, noticing the smoke in the house, awakened the family once more about 7:30 a. m. When they were unable to put out the blaze in the mattress firemen were called to the scene.

PTA Unit Backs County Library

The Allegany County PTA Council has added its endorsement to the proposal for a county-wide library here.

This endorsement was contained in a letter to the Allegany County Board of Commissioners from Mrs. Lester McGill, secretary of the PTA Council.

Mrs. McGill wrote that the PTA Council, at its recent meeting at West Side School, unanimously endorsed the county library plan and instructed her to write the commissioners asking them to put a two-cent levy for the county library in its 1958-59 budget to be adopted April 15.
